TABLE OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS.

We have prepared the following correct statement of the electoral votes given to the various candidates for President and Vice President of the United States since the adoption of the Constitution. It should be observed that at the first four elections, the colleges of electors were required to vote for two persons, the highest of whom should be President, and the next highest Vice President of the United States. In consequence of the equal vote between Jefferson and Burr, in 1800, the Constitution was amended so as to require the President and Vice President to be voted for separately as at present.

1789—Ten States entitled to 73 Votes. George Washington 69; John Adams 34; John Jay 9; Robert Harrison 6; John Rutledge 6; John Hancock 4; George Clinton 3; Samuel Huntington 2; John Milton 1; James Armstrong 1; Edward Telfair 1; Benjamin Lincoln 1.

George Washington was UNANIMOUSLY elected President. Rhode Island and North Carolina, not having at the above time ratified the Constitution, chose no electors. New-York did not vote. Two votes of Virginia and two of Maryland were not given.

1792—Fifteen States entitled to 135 votes. George Washington 132 votes; John Adams 77; George Clinton 50; Thomas Jefferson 4; Aaron Burr 1.

George Washington was again unanimously elected President, and John Adams, by a plurality of votes, Vice President. Two votes of Maryland and one of South Carolina were not given.

1796—Sixteen States entitled to 138 votes; John Adams 71 votes; Thomas Jefferson 68; Thomas Pinckney 59; Aaron Burr 30; Samuel Adams 15; Oliver Ellsworth 11; George Clinton 7; John Jay 5; Iredell 3; Samuel Johnson 2; George Washington 2; J. Henry 2; Charles C. Pinckney 1.

It would appear by these estimates that the period of the town's greatest prosperity and increase, is the interval since 1830. During this time the population has more than doubled, allowance being made for the number set off with the new township; and the increase of its capital and business is probably in a much greater ratio.

HOW TO RAISE $50,000,

The expediency of dispensing with collecting agents for the general benevolent Societies of the country is under discussion in religious circles. A great saving, it is said, would be made if pastors of churches would assume the responsibility of presenting the claims of the societies annually and remitting collections. The receipts of the American Board of Missions would be increased, it is said $50,000 a year by this expedient. It is further suggested that the number of societies, secretaries, &c., might be reduced, so that a few could do with equal efficiency.

SYNODS.

The Synod of New-York and New-Jersey was organized Tuesday, October 17th, 1843, in the First Presbyterian Church in this city, after [a sermon from Acts 11, 24, by Rev. Mr. Cheever, by the appointment of Rev. GEORGE PIERSON, Moderator, and Rev. E. Seymore, of Bloomfield, and William B. Lewis of Brooklyn, Clerks. The Synod accepted an invitation to visit the American Institute in New-York on Friday morning.

The appeal of Messrs Belden and Hill from the vote of North River Presbytery, condemning them for holding the doctrine of Perfection, occupied several days.

The Synod refused to sustain the appeal of Messrs Belden and Hill, by a vote of 33 to 40; so that the judgment of the Presbytery remains undisturbed.

The minute in this case was unanimously adopted, strongly condemned their sentiments upon the subject of Perfectionism, and directed the Presbytery to which they belong to issue the charges now preferred against them, and at the same time the Synod enjoined upon these gentlemen prayerfully to reconsider the subject and to renounce their errors.

Rev. Dr. Lindsley, President of Marietta College, made an address in the evening in behalf of western seminaries, and the Synod adopted a resolution commending the subject to the churches.

A communication was received from the seceding or free churches in Scotland, and after consideration, resolutions commending their appeal to the favorable regard of the churches within the bounds of the Synod, and an answer to the communication expressive of the sympathy of the Synod were adopted. A decided preference to the voluntary over the established system was also expressed in these proceedings.

Dr. Cunningham preached in the third Presbyterian church, January 21st, 1844.

The Synod adjourned Saturday morning, after a session of a week, to meet next year in the Mercer street Church, in New York. Among its items of business yesterday was the reference of several memorials concerning Slavery to a committee, of which Dr. Mason is chairman.

The Synod of New Jersey (old school,) was organized at Newton on Tuesday, some 4 or 500 members being present, by the appointment of D. V. McLean, of Freehold, as Moderator, and R. K. Rodgers, of Boundbrook, and C. K. Imbrie, of Rahway, Clerks. Addresses were made at a Missionary meeting in the evening by Walter Lawrie and Dr. Janeway, and Mr. Morrison; recently from China.

The Synod adjourned to meet next year at New Brunswick.

The New York Synod, consisting of the Presbyteries of Hudson, North River, Bedford, Long Island, New York, and 2d New York, (of the old School,) convened last evening at the Presbyterian Church corner of Grand and Crosby sts. The annual sermon was preached by Dr. Potts, after which Dr. W. Dickinson, of the Canal st. Church, was chosen Moderator, and Rev. James W. Henry and Jacob Green, of the Bedford Presbytery, were chosen Secretaries.

The Synod, were engaged yesterday in the consideration of a series of resolutions sympathising with the 6 or 700 ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Scotland who have recently left their churches and their homes, rather than yield to the desire of the Government for a union of Church and State.

The resolutions are 3 in number. The 1st expressing gratitude at the stand taken by the ministers ; 2d expressing sympathy at the privations experienced by them, and thirdly, that a recommendation for aid be made to the various churches embraced in the Synod. The resolutions were adopted. A sermon was preached in the afternoon by Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Southampton, and in the evening a discourse was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Phillips, on behalf of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

The Presbyterian Synod, which embraces the States of Maryland, Delaware, part of Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia, assembled yesterday evening in Rev. Mr. Musgrave's Church, in North Eutaw st. The Rev. Mr. Tustin, of Washington delivered the opening sermon.

THE MISSES BUCKNALL'S FEMALE SEMINARY.

No. 382 Broad Street.

In this institution, the more solid and useful branches of Female Education, are taught with special care, while all requisite attention is given to those of an Ornamental character.

The mode of instruction adopted, is intended to exercise the reflecting and reasoning faculties, to promote habits of considerate and independent thought, and to impress a conscientious regard for religious obligations.

The science of vocal music is taught as a regular branch of Education. All the pupils attending the Institution constitute the music class. This arrangement not only affords an agreeable relaxation from severer studies, but also proves an invaluable aid in the art and science of Elocution.

The course of studies embraces Languages, Geography, Mathematics, Natural and intellectual Science, Music and Theology.

There is one Vacation and one Recess.

The Vacation commences at the close of the fourth term in July, and continues till the first Monday in September. The Recess comprehends the Christmas holydays.

No deduction will be made for absence during the term, except in the case of protracted illness.

NEWARK YOUNG LADIES' SEMINARY.

This Institution has been in successful operation for about three years. It is designed to confer an education of a solid and substantial character; to give thorough instruction, first of all in the great elements of knowledge, then in the higher branches, according to the age and capacity of the pupils, till such attainments are made as may fit them for eminent usefulness in their appropriate sphere of duties.

The location of the School combines many advantages. The city of Newark is but nine miles from the city of New York, and is accessible from all points, by steam-boat or rail-road. The moral and religious privileges enjoyed in Newark, and the delightful natural scenery by which it is surrounded, render it a most desirable place of residence.

The building is large and commodious—consequently the unhealthy atmosphere caused in small, badly ventilated rooms is wholly avoided.

VACATIONS.

A recess of a week is given at the holydays—another during the spring—and the usual Summer Vacation from four to six weeks.

PIERSON'S
NEWARK CITY DIRECTORY,

FOR THE

69th YEAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,
FROM 4th OF JULY, 1844.

Important observations to those using this work.

Throughout this Directory, the christian names of those where there are more than one of the same surname, are carefully alphabetically arranged, male and female, firms, &c. In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For example a person seeking for—Pirsson, will not find the one sought for if he looks in the names of Pierson; so, also, for—Bonnel, he should not look among the Bannels; and for Conger not in Congar: and for Parcels not look in Parsals or Parceils; not for Hays in Hayes.

h. stands for house—n. near—c. corner—r. residence—
Av. Avenue—Pl. Place.

The Proprietor of this well known establishment continues, as he has heretofore, to supply his customers with the delicacies of the season, served up in the best manner. The quality of his viands, and his very moderate charges, are evident from the flattering patronage which the public are pleased daily to award him. His efforts shall be, as they have hitherto been, to merit its continuance, and to secure to his house that reputation for excellence and accommodation which it has for so long a time maintained. Families supplied with oysters opened, pickled, or in the shell, delivered at short notice. Suppers prepared and sent to any part of the City.

This my tenth edition of the NEWARK CITY DIRECTORY, comes forth under (decidedly) more favorable auspices than my former one, from the fact that not only nine tenths of those who were here last year, are to be found somewhere this year; besides some hundreds who come in from the East, West, North and South. There were 5,050 names last year. This year there are 5,650; some 600 more, which adds about 2000 to our population, making the sum total now about 21,187, allowing 3½ persons to a name, which is a low estimate. There have also been built 125 buildings of various kinds besides 25 which have been re-built, and raised one story, all of which I promised to give street, number, and by whom built. Viz.

Of Buildings erected from April 1st, 1843, to April 1st, 1844.

I have added to the yearly matter, the New-Jersey Executive for 1843 and 44, the Table of Presidential Elections from 1776, to 1840, the Census of Newark, for 1836 and 1840, the Mount Pleasant Cemetery, its Officers and Incorporation, Financial Committee of Bethel Church, How to raise $50,000 for Foreign Missions, Synods of 1843, &c.

The times have so changed that I concluded to enlarge my edition a few copies, and shall rely upon the friends of the Directory for not only the sale but payment of the whole edition, and I sincerely hope I shall not be so ill treated as to hear the word TRUST named, from this time onward, for I have had my full share of trouble the last seven years. There is not a man (beside me,) in Newark that would kept the Directory alive, in such trying times as I have been compelled to encounter, and now the circumstances and condition of every one having (by Providence.) been so far ameliorated, and every thing appears to be moving on so harmonious and prosperously, the countenances of all look so cheerfull and happy, I exhort all and all to keep sober and be satisfied with DOING WELL, then may we look forward with the pleasing anticipation, that we will be BLESSED IN OUR BASKETS AND IN OUR STORE.

B. T. PIERSON.
